OKINAWA, Aug. 17.—A Japanese attack on four B32 American bom-bers flying a photographic mission over the Tokyo Bay area was reported today, two days after Supreme Commander Douglas Mac-Arthur had announced that Allied operations on all sectors had been halted except for aerial observa-tion tion

So the non-fraternization policy were authorized. . but it does not seem to me that these revisions should give license to the spirit of camaraderie that has sprung up be-tween so many of our soldiers and the Germans.

Forgiveness is an honorable vir-tue, but even the most petty crim-inal is not forgiven merely because he is seized by remorse. He must work out his pardon over a period of time before he is allowed to re-sume his place in society. The average German today is docile and co-operative to almost the point of servility, but is this not a calculated scheme to win a psychological vic-tory out of a military defeat? For years these same fawning civilians have worked with all their energies to maintain the Nazi war machine and gladly sent their sons off to wage war for the Führer. The delay in Japan's signing of the peace terms has given rise to much uneasiness by Americans, who ever since the "day that will live in infamy" have become accusioned to treating the Japs with considerable circumspection,

REPORTS of scattered Banzai charges, even after Hiro'hito called it quirs, and Kamikaze pilots attempting to stage little Pearl Harbors of their own have caused considerable alarm, although most people are agreed that when it comes to the Japs. Gon. MacArthur knows what he is doing.

ing the victory. America still finds the peace hard to comprehend. There has been some revival of the demand for an investigation into the Pearl Harbor disaster of Dec. 7, 1941. Throughout the war anti-Administration sources have urged an inquiry but by and large public opinion has supported the Administration's stand that war time was no occasion for opening up a subject which would undoubtedly reveal many top secrets and that high offleers of the fighting service could not be spared from duty to testify. But now in fairness to Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short and Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, who were retired after Japan's sneak attack and who have both sought a hearing of the case, it is being urged that the truth should be revealed.

Another demand for inquiry, which has been constant throughout the war—arc military expenditure—has been a little dampened since the mighty triumph of the atom bomb. Several times the appropriation committees kicked against allocating more money to the mysterious research and how the Chief of Staff had to appeal personally for me cash. And the President called it a gamble when he said: "We have spent two billion dollars on the greatest scientific gamble in history— and won " and won

People are beginning to realize the awful responsibility of the office of President. He won the gamble but if we hadn't history would have scorned the research as a waste of dough.

Russians Defended by Nation's Press

NEWSPAPERS today are against the line of thought that Russia I came in only when our atomic bomb made our victory indisputably certain. Churchill's speech yesterday shows that the Russians promised long ago that they would tackle Japan within three months of the end of the European war.

OWI is being kidded now. The official press agent for the govern-ment advertised the sale of 1,000 small ship's bells as "ideal for ringing out the victory peal." Unfortunately for OWI the sale they advertised commenced two days after Japan's capitulation was received.

A MAdministration headache is what is to be done about Montgomery Ward now that the war is over? Will the Army, or can the Army, continue to run the company's properties? And, of course, there is the other problem: What about the no-strike pledge which has been kept for the mos' part during the war? What now?

O^N the industrial front Charles Wilson, who used to head the War Production Board and is head of General Electric, has added good news to other industrialists who think that it will not be long before there are plenty of jobs. He says that in a very short time they will be employing more than they did in peace time and that, within the months, they will be employing as many as they did the day the Japs surrendered. To appreciate the significance of this statement, it must be known that General Electric plants have been devoted 99 per cent to war production.

Army Cuts Assure U.S. EnoughCoal, More Meat

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (ANS).—President Truman brought out a handful of plans for America yesterday. Above all, he emphasized the need for full employment—and no strikes or lockouts for a while, at least.

Meantime, in a fast-moving day on the domestic front, the Army said huge military cutbacks would assure more meat for civil-lans and enough coal next winter. Mr. Truman called upon man-agement and labor for temporary renewal of their war-time no-strike and no-lockout pledge. He asked that the pledge be given until a meeting between management and labor—which he will call when Congress reassembles in September—could be held.

To Reopen Contracts

While he was making the request, CIO President Philip Murray served notice that practically all major CIO unions would start immediate-for bibber ly to reopen contracts for higher wages under the government's new wage policies

Those policies are that raises can be granted where they don't call for an increase in prices of things workers turn out.

workers turn out. Mr. Truman said his employment plan—a bill pending in Congress— was "must" legislation. It would enable the government to set up yearly a program envisioning "full employment even if the government has to provide work." He gave these other plans to a news conference.

news conference: The genius of scientists who pro-duced the atomic bomb will oe turned now to finding a way of making atomic power benefit man-kind.

20 Million Tons of Coal

The Army said its cutbacks in coal within the next 12 months would make 120,000,000 tons available for homes and factories. The civilian shortage feared previously had been estimated at 25,000,000 tons

Mr. Truman wants to eliminate Mr. Truman wants to eliminate the War Labor Board, which sat on wages and was the government's troubleshooter between manage-ment and labor in war-time, as soon after the labor-management conference and its duties can be turned over to other agencies. Some of the meat involved in their cutback. Army officials said, was intended for C rations overseas but these will not be needed and the meat will be available for civilians. And because of tremendous cuts in military supplies, the same officials said the present freight crisis would be helped so sharply it should cease to exist as of today.

Other Developments

planned production of planes. 3—The Maritime Commission canceled many merchant ship contracts

Training, Not Conscription

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (ANS). —President Truman breathed a spark of life yesterday into the faint hopes of Congressional advo-cates of universal military training. but he knocked down flat any idea of a regular peace-time draft.

The President told a news conference he would submit a recommen-dation on universal military train-ing. However, he emphasized he did not mean conscription. What he actually will propose he did not say. Capitol Hill expects the Presi-dent's recommendation soon after legislators reconvene next month. Congressmen close to the Adminis-tration have predicted the Truman plan will be tied up with an ex-panded and modernized National Guard and the Reserve Corps, and that it will not be compulsory.

Such a plan has won wide back-ing in Congress among opponents of compulsory military training in peace-time. In fact, so strong has opposition developed to compulsion that even its most ardent advocates now admit privately that their cause is lost.

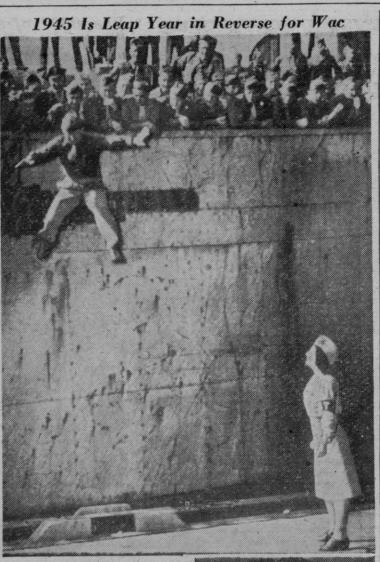

Opponents also say that the Army high command, which went all out for universal training during recent hearings before the House Post-War Military Police Committee, also has mintary Poice Committee, also has given up the fight. The committee indorsed the "prin-ciple" of universal training, but its recommendation will not be acted on for several weeks by the House Military Affairs Committee.

Mr. Truman's news-conference statement on post-war military training gave strength to reports, current at the Capitol for some time, that the President will request Congess to permit a substantial in-crease in the size of the peace-time regular Army. Standing Army strength now is limited by law to slightly less than 300.000, including 12.500 officers. The Army is reported in Congres-sional circles to be considering a request that its normal officer strength be increased to 30.000, with the assumption that enlisted strength would be increased to around 700.000.
